Accellent Inc. to be Acquired by KKR for $1.27 Billion

WILMINGTON, MA., October 10, 2005 – Accellent Inc., the largest provider of integrated contract manufacturing and design services to the medical device industry, announced today that it has signed a definitive merger agreement with affiliates of Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. (KKR) in a transaction valued at approximately $1.27 billion.

“KKR has a long history of investing in world-class companies to foster growth and expansion. We are delighted to join with KKR as we embark upon the next stage of our development,” said Ron Sparks, President and CEO of Accellent. “Accellent’s customers are the world’s leading developers and providers of medical devices, focused on the areas of cardiology, endoscopy, and orthopaedics. We have often said that our strategic goal is to be recognized by our customers as the world’s best and most innovative order fulfillment and design organization. With the strong support of KKR, we plan to build upon our commitment to provide outstanding service to our customers in the years ahead.”

As part of the transaction, members of Accellent management will partner with KKR by retaining a significant equity stake in the company. No changes are currently contemplated in Accellent’s strategy or operations. Accellent Inc. is currently owned by a private investment group led by KRG Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners, an affiliate of Credit Suisse First Boston.

“Accellent has established itself as a leader in its industry and has posted impressive growth under the leadership of Ron Sparks and his team,” said Michael W. Michelson, a Member of KKR. “We believe Accellent is uniquely positioned to capitalize on continued industry momentum. We look forward to working with the entire Accellent team in full support of their strategy and ongoing customer and operational initiatives.”

The acquisition is expected to be completed before the end of 2005, and is subject to customary closing conditions. Credit Suisse First Boston and Hogan & Hartson LLP advised Accellent Inc. J.P. Morgan and Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP advised KKR.
